

REGULATORY WORKSHOP ON THE DEVELOPMENT OF CAR-T CELLS

Jointly organized by
EURE-CART (European Endeavour for Chimeric Antigen Receptor Therapies)
and
CARAMBA (SLAMF7-CAR T cells prepared by Sleeping Beauty gene-transfer for immunotherapy of multiple myeloma – a rare hematologic disease)

Sitges (Spain), January 30, 2020
Venue: Melia Sitges Hotel

PROGRAMME

Thursday, January 30, 2020

Open Session: CAR T first-in-human clinical trials - where we are and future perspectives

09:00-09:30	Overview on CAR T development	M. Hudecek
09:30-10:00	Overview on CAR T regulatory aspects	M.C. Galli / tbd
10:00-10:30	Coffee break
10:30-12:00	Round table: Harmonisation of first-in-human studies review in EU <ul style="list-style-type: none">✓ Past, Present and Future (discussants: EURE-CART RAC members, M. Hudecek, H. Bönig)✓ The experience of EURE-CART project (speaker: tbd)✓ The experience of CARAMBA project (M. Hudecek)✓ Harmonization efforts on GMO issues for clinical trials with gene therapy products (M. Timon)
12:00	Conclusion remarks	M.C. Galli / M. Hudecek

These projects have received funding from the European Union's Horizon 2020 research and innovation programme under grant agreement No 733297 and 754658.